SENIORS' ADVICE ON THE COLLEGE PROCESS

- Be honest and don't be afraid to take risks! ● Don't go to college. ● Have fun, don't misspell your last name. ● Get it done. It's tedious and stressful, but it won't last forever. ●
- Have a good contingency plan, and try to get to know the admissions officers well. ● Have an open mind! College is what you make of it. Think rationally. ● Don't prioritize the college admissions process over your own happiness—you'll regret it. ● Plan ahead. ● Proofread everything! ● Relax. You will get into college. Straight As are not required. ●
- Work hard but don't forget to have fun. These four years of high school will fly by. You want to meet as many people and try as many things as you can during this time. ●
- After high school, you're in the big world and it is a bit daunting. The only way to get through that is with the people next to you who are also going through the same process. ● Trust your gut. ● There's a place for everyone. ● The stress ends, I promise. ● Tell your parents to get a job at your top-choice university. ● Enjoy your senior year! It's your last year of high school and it will fly by before you get a chance to enjoy it. ● Study hard but also make sure that you're enjoying your high school career! ● Start early and always keep your grades up even as an underclassman. ● Stay calm. There is so much hype built up around college in this town, just remember when you are in the midst of the chaos that everything will work out regardless of how improbable it may seem. ● Relax, and think about what you have a natural passion for. Do your own thing and don't worry about what colleges everybody else is applying to, or looking at. College is a new and personal experience, you can't lean on your high school peers for this decision. ● No matter where you go to college, whether it be an Ivy League school or community college, if you are dedicated and work hard you WILL succeed. ● Lol, good luck. ●
